

Send this job to a friendAPPLICATIONS ANALYST*Department: IT Ambulatory - CorpSchedule: Full Time - RegularShift: DaysHours:*Job Details:

Bachelor's Degree

Looking for an Applications Analyst with expertise in Epic to assist in research and fact-finding to develop, configure and modify moderately complex information systems. Works collaboratively with clinical and business owners to provide solutions that meet the needs of the areas involved. Responsible for bringing together and supporting business owners, clinical owners, multidisciplinary IT teams, and all others required to obtain clear project definition, scope, goals and outcomes. Responsible for taking projects from original concept through final implementation. Takes initiative to remove barriers, ensure progress toward goals, and achievement of outcomes on behalf of all key stakeholders.

Responsibilities include:

Assist in the development, support and functionality roll out of the Electronic Medical Record at Beaumont Health System. Focus will be on integration in the EMR space with physician offices

Participation in all phases of the system development life cycle including development of use cases and evaluation of software solutions

Research to develop, configure and modify moderately complex information systems

Create documentation of business requirements, current and future state workflow

Designs, codes/configures, tests, debugs, documents, and maintains programs/applications

Coordinate all testing phases of associated applications during implementations and upgrades

Develop strong relationships with end user communities, customers and business partners

Potential candidates must possess the following essential skills for this position:

- Excellent analytical and organizational skills
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as a team member across multiple teams
- Ability to develop, document and ensure adherence to technical standards

- Ability to independently research and perform analysis to resolve complex issues
- Ability to understand customer requirements and their impact on technical directions of a solution
- Must be self-motivated, detail-oriented and able to manage one's own work independently in a fast-paced environment with changing priorities
- Must be able to maintain professionalism and react to customers appropriately while exhibiting the highest level of customer service
- Proficient in the use of Microsoft Office tools (Excel, Word, Powerpoint, etc)

Qualified candidate should have the following specialized skills:

- Minimum 2-3 years work experience in Information Technology required
- Demonstrated experience with Epic Ambulatory (EpicCare) EMR software preferred
- Basic understanding of physician office operations, clinical workflows and terminology preferred
- Strong understanding of healthcare business process and technology preferred
- Working knowledge of health care incentive programs such as Meaningful Use a plus
- Healthcare IT experience in acute care or ambulatory care settings a plus
- Prior experience with other Epic applications/modules a plus

Minimum educational requirement: Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Information Systems, Business Computer Systems, or other related field

Salary and position title will be determined based on proven experience and education.

HR use
Only:

William Beaumont Hospital is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, status as a protected veteran, or status as a qualified individual with a disability.

Click Here to Apply Online

New Search

Return To Jobs

back to top